

GOOSMANN ROSE COLVARD & CRAMER, P.A.

ITEMS THAT MAY BE IN YOUR BEST INTEREST REGARDING THE PURCHASE OF RESIDENTIAL OR VACANT REAL PROPERTY

In regard to a real property purchase transaction, there are items that are either outside of the typical scope of our representation or related to services provided by other professionals that may be in your best interest to obtain prior to closing your purchase. In the event you have not already contacted us for assistance on such items, we recommend and advise that you coordinate, procure, obtain, require or research some or all of the following items or matters as you deem advisable, applicable or desirable:

- Survey
- Termite Inspection and Report
- Radon Inspection
- Home Inspection¹
- Environmental Evaluation and/or Reports²
- Flood Hazard Inspection or Flood Zone Verification
- Repairs/Estimates for Repairs
- Appraisal
- Hazard/Homeowners Insurance and/or Builders Risk Insurance
- Home Warranty
- Zoning Verification and/or Compliance
- Compliance with Restrictive Covenants³
- Verification of Owners Association or Condominium Association Rules⁴
- Review of Leases / Verification of Tenants in Possession
- Verification, Inspection or Testing of Well or Water
- Verification and Inspection of Septic System
- Percolation Tests or Tests Necessary for any other Utility Services
- Verification of Water and/or Sewer Service(s) or Tap Permit(s)
- General Contractor's Letter
- Verification of Completion of Construction
- Verification of New Construction Permits
- Verification of Certification of Occupancy or Housing Certificate

¹ Including, but not limited to, inspections of any equipment, appliances, structural and roof elements, electrical, plumbing, heating and cooling systems and any fireplace and chimney systems.

² Including, but not limited to, asbestos, lead-based paint, above or below ground storage tanks, carbon monoxide, formaldehyde, electric power lines or wetlands.

³ Restrictive Covenants discovered in the title examination will be reviewed by the Firm regarding the status of title based upon the information provided to the Firm by the time of the examination; however, please ensure that you review all restrictions pertaining to the Property as the same may affect or impact your particular or future intended use and/or enjoyment of the Property. In the event you do not obtain copies of all restrictions from your real estate agent, please contact us to request copies.

⁴ If disclosed, Owners Association or Condominium Association dues will be collected and/or prorated as a part of closing.